

Department of Civil Engineering

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR THE ERADICATION OF POVERTY

Topic: Suffering of the poorest due to natural disasters related to climate change, duty and contribution of science"

5:30 pm - 7:00 pm o'clock. IST (Indian Standard Time)

Speakers

17
October 2021

Eng. Christian Rhugwasanye
Master Student, Civil Engineering,
KI University India
Member Of The American Society
Of Civil Engineers,
Member Of The International
Movement Atd Fourth World

Mr. Niek Tweehuijsen
Africa Region Leadership Team
ATD Fourth World International Movement

Prof. Dr. phil. Ivo Wallimann-Helmer
Professor, Environmental Sciences and Humanities Institute
Director of the Institute UniFR_ESH
University of Fribourg
Switzerland

Dr. Orna Shemer
Lecturer of the practice, Social Service
Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Member of the ATD Fourth World International Movement

Dr. Ch. Hanumantha Rao
Professor, Head of Civil Engineering Department
Researcher in Geotechnics and Soil Survey
Hon. President of IGS Student Chapter
K L Deemed to be University, India

Registration link: <https://forms.office.com/r/HRY5AKx8pw>
Webinar Platform: Cisco Webex

Contact - Webinar Coordinator

Dr. Syed Hamim Jeelani

drhamim@kluniversity.in, +91-8431195534

"Wherever men and women are condemned to live in extreme poverty, human rights are violated. To come together to ensure that these rights be respected is our solemn duty."

-Joseph Wresinski, 17 October 1987-